

Purim

Ref: Sefer Zemanim, Hilchot Megilah Vechanukah, Chapters 1 and 2

	Fulfils obligation	Explanation
 Everyone obligated to either read or listen to megilah	✓	Children should be trained into this practice
Entire megilah must be read	✓
Read at night and during day	✓
Blessings recited before and after	✓
Walled cities, and Shushan itself read megilah on 15th Adar	✓
Other cities read on 14th Adar	✓
Megilah not read on Shabbat

	Fulfils obligation	Explanation
Reads megilah in improper sequence	✗	One may pause and continue if necessary but not to change sequence
Reads megilah by heart	✗
Reads with incorrect intention	✗	e.g. he reads megilah to check it
Makes mistakes while reading	✓
Reads while standing or sitting	✓	However out of respect, the main reader should stand
Written with ink on gvil or klaf (i.e. megilah)	✓	Same as Sefer Torah
Parchment should be ruled	✓	Same as Sefer Torah
Parchment processed without intent	✓	 Reminder: Comparison in Writing of Torah, Tefillin and Mezuzah Ref: Sefer Ahavah, Hilchot Tefillin, Chapter 1. Comparison of Torah, Tefillin and Mezuzah Ref: Sefer Ahavah Hilchot Tefillin, Chapters 2-10
Written on paper	✗
Written on unprocessed parchment	✗
Written by gentile	✗
Some letters rubbed out or missing	✓	As long as most letters in scroll are whole

Parchment sewn together as single scroll	✓	Only animal sinews allowed
Sewn with thread	×	Only animal sinews allowed
When reading, megilah should be folded like a document	✓
Names of Haman's sons and following word aseret are read in one breath	✓	To show they were all killed together
Forbidden to mourn on Purim  🔔 Reminder: Pack on Mourning  	✓	Purim is a day of happiness and festivity
Works on Purim	✓	However, one should not work on Purim
📖 Conducts Purim feast at night (seudat Purim)	×	If started during the day, one may continue into the night
Becomes intoxicated on Purim	✓
📖 Mishloach manot sends gifts of food to friends	✓
📖 Matanot Laevyonim . Distribute charity to the poor	✓	